

Journal of a STARFLEET Jedi was created by Jason Garrett

Yes you read that title correctly! A STARFLEET Jedi

I have been a Star Wars fan for as long as I have been a Star Trek fan. A man who walks both paths.

Star Trek is about family, friendship, overcoming adversity - a philosophical approach

Star Wars and the Jedi path is about compassion, acceptance, peace with oneself - a spiritual journey

Yes that is very short very narrow description that deserves much more in-depth explanation. But that is for another day.

This marks a new beginning. A return, a full circle. I have been here before, I am here now and I will be again. So is the truly a beginning or a perpetual circle?

So join me if you wish on a journey of my journal. Maybe we can learn something of each other and maybe teach each other.
